Mrs. Kate Souseley, of Near Elizaville, Fleming County, Had Thought and Talked Much of Recent Suicide Of Chas. Ross.

Tuesday morning when Howard Spencer and family living on the Hill-top pike about one mile from Elizaville Fleming county, went to the bed room of Mrs. Kate Souseley, who lived with them, to learn why she did not get up they found her cold in death, hanging to a bed post with two towels about her neck as a rope.

The towels were tied at the top of the high bed post and the woman evidently had to bend her knees to strangle herself.

Deceased was the widow of Dan Souseley who died a few years ago and was about 70 years of age. No cause is assigned for her action.

She had talked considerably about the suicide of C. L. Ross which occurred some days ago and it seemed to prey on her mind. The evening before she had retired apparently in her normal condition and gave no evidence of anything rash.

Coroner C. C. Maxey held an inquest and a jury found Mrs. Souseley had come to death by her own hand.

Deceased is survived by three sisters, Mrs. Sellers, Mrs. Rose Howe, Mrs. Frank Cottrill, and four brothers, John, Howard, Charles and Ben Spencer. Burial will take place at Elizaville Thursday, services by Rev. J. J. Dickey.

ACCIDENT RETURNING FROM COLORED DANCE.

The Fleming Gazette says:
Tuesday morning when Claud Fox, John H. Rice, Will Cochran and one or two others, all colored, returned from Maysville where they attended a dance and imbibed in moonshine they drove out the Mt. Sterling pike for a joy spin in Fox's machine. Returning, Fox took the wheel and in speeding down the hill just beyond C. W. Crane's home the auto went into the ditch and turned over.

Fox and Rice were taken home, but the full extent of their injuries is not known, both being intoxicated. Fox appears to be hurt internally and about the back, probably seriously.

THE "MOTHER OF MEDICINE"

Ists, the Queen and afterwards the Goddess, was called the "Mother of Medicine." In ancient Egypt, centuries before Christ, women were skilled in medicine. They knew the great value of medicinal plants.

Hippocrates, the "Father of Medicine," many centuries later, knew less of the merit of vegetable drugs than did the women of ancient times.

Lydia E. Pinkham, nearly fifty years ago, gave to women her Vegetable Compound, now known everywhere as Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. This is a woman's medicine for woman's ailments, prepared from medicinal plants.

JUDGE COCHRAN SENTENCED 99 PERSONS TUESDAY

More Than Four Hours Required for Federal Judge to Sentence Persons Convicted at Covington Court.

It required more than four hours Tuesday afternoon for the passing of sentences in Federal Court, Covington, on ninety-nine persons convicted at this term of court. Judge A. M. J. Cochran imposed unusually heavy sentences, which ranged from fines to terms in the penitentiary.

Many jail sentences were inflicted in cases where the charges were violations of the prohibition laws. Judge Cochran said he desired to be reasonable, but that the manufacture and selling of liquor required punishment to eliminate the evil. He said the soft-drink stand is being used as a cover for the sale of whisky.

The conspiracy charge against five Newport men, James O'Brien, Carl Bruchhaber, John Donsback, Steve Packey and Andrew Bogenschultz, who were arrested and convicted for activities in connection with the steel strike, drew a large crowd to the courtroom. Judge Cochran read a number of affidavits describing conditions in Newport at the time the defendants were charged with obstructing a truck which was being driven by Albert Yockey from the Andrews Steel Plant to Cincinnati.

Attorney Arthur Hall, representing the men, asked for leniency. Judge Cochran sentenced each of the five men, except John Donsback, to a term of eight months in the Winchester (Ky.) jail, and Donsback to thirty days in the Covington jail.

LIQUOR CASE HAS MANY UNUSUAL ANGLES

Fight In Pool Room Leads to Arrests—One Case Dismissed and Another Party Is Placed Under Arrest.

On Monday afternoon the local police arrested two colored men who were engaged in a fight at the colored pool room in Front street and at the hearing of this fight evidence crept out that there had been some bootlegging done in that vicinity.

Warrants were issued for Charles Warner, colored, an employee of the pool room charging him with selling liquor to another. His case had gone but a short distance on Tuesday afternoon when evidence crept out that Warner's employer, Fine Best, had been selling liquor. Upon motion of the city, the warrant against Warner was dismissed and a new warrant was immediately issued for Best, who could not be found.

Late Tuesday evening Best surrendered himself to Police Judge Curran and his case was set for trial for Thursday evening.

So much talking is being done on all sides that these series of cases promise to develop something interesting.

FRANTIC MOTHER KILLS CHILDREN AND HERSELF

Russell Springs Woman After Slaying Two Children Runs Into Sharp Blade of a Hatchet.

A Columbia, Ky., dispatch dated Tuesday says:

Mrs. Arnold Holt, in a sudden fit of dementia at her home in Russell Springs, a village near here, slew two of her children, attempted to kill a third and then, fastening a hatchet in a fence with the blade toward her, backed off twenty feet and ran into it head-on. Physicians say she will die.

Maxine a girl of 12, was decapitated with a butcher knife; her infant with a son, six years old, was thrust into a barrel of water and covered with a bed quilt apparently in order to make sure they would be killed.

The infant was drowned but the boy threw off the covering and was found hanging over the edge of the barrel. Neighbors rescued him. He will survive.

The only witness to the tragedy was George Harris, Mrs. Arnold's father, with whom she had been making her home. He was so stricken with horror at the tragedy being enacted before him that he was unable to do more than utter cries for help.

Mrs. Arnold had been separated from her husband and was the plaintiff in a divorce action which was docketed for hearing in the circuit court here today.

She was about 34 years old. She has a brother, Elan Harris, who is a dentist in Danville, Ky.

ROUSTING 'EM OUT

The Democratic Senators and Representatives who are crying out against the action of President Harding in cleaning house at the Bureau of Engraving and Printing are the very ones who were loudest in their demands for political plums when the government was taken over by the Wilson administration in 1913. They had no regard for Federal efficiency when they sought to put their political friends in important positions, and they have no regard for it now when they want Mr. Harding to keep men in office who have been proven inefficient after a searching investigation. The Democrats may cry "spoils" if it suits them to do so, but the fact is that the Federal service is going to be put on a higher plane of efficiency, regardless of how many Democratic toes are stepped on in the process.

TYPHOID FEVER
MORTALITY DECREASES
IN THE UNITED STATES

Commerce Department Announces the Figures on Deaths From Typhoid Fever in America.

Washington, D. C., April 5. — The Department of Commerce through the Bureau of the Census, announces lower mortality rates from typhoid fever in recent years. The amount of typhoid fever in a community is recognized as one of the best indexes to its healthfulness. So also the mortality rate from this cause is a very important sanitary index.

The steadily decreasing mortality rate from typhoid fever is therefore most gratifying, a decrease in the registration states of 1916 from 13.3 per 100,000 population in 1916 to 7 in 1920. In 1920 of the states in the registration area Massachusetts and Wisconsin share the honor of having the lowest rate (2.5) while the highest (22.4) appears for South Carolina. Of the eleven states showing rates by color, the lowest rate for the white population was 3.6 and the lowest for the colored was 4.5, both for New York state, while the highest rate for the white population was 19.1 for Kentucky and that for the colored was 30.2.

Of the 32 states shown for 1919 and 1920 in the table below only 8 show higher rates in 1920 than in 1919, namely:

State:	1920:	1919:
Colorado	9.2	8.5
Connecticut	4.1	4.0
Kansas	8.0	7.3
Maine	9.0	5.7
Michigan	7.9	7.6
New Hampshire	6.8	3.4
New Jersey	3.3	3.2
Vermont	10.5	3.1
Washington	5.6	4.2

Reports from the state of Kentucky show 419 deaths in 1920 as against 536 in 1919 and 540 in 1918.

KEEPING THEM ON THE PAY ROLLS.

Of the seven emergency measures recommended by the Manufacturers' Committee of President Harding's Conference on Unemployment, the first, which refers to part time work through reduced time or rotation of jobs, is almost universally in practice today, as letters to the Emergency committee of the conference clearly show.

Charles M. Schwab, of the Bethlehem Steel Company, for instance, says: "We have endeavored to maintain the maximum possible number on the rolls. This, of course, means a rotation of forces. In spite of the serious depression through which we have been passing, the number of employees on our rolls has decreased only 27 per cent. from January to November 1. of last year, as compared with a reduction in operations of from 65 to 70 per cent."

"When it became absolutely necessary to reduce the number of employees, men for lay-off were selected with care, due consideration being given to efficiency, length of service and ability to weather a lay-off. Other things being equal, employees with dependents, as far as possible, have been retained.

Similar conditions at the factories of other such nationally known concerns as the Lukens Steel Company, the Dennison Manufacturing Company, French and Hecht, the Michigan Steel Tube Products Company, and the United States Lighting and Heating Corporation, have brought out well-considered programs for keeping employees at work which have been successfully used to tide over the slack periods.

"Every day," said Colonel Arthur Woods, Chairman of the Emergency Committee, "the conference hears of some awkward phase of the situation corrected by some new measure of relief. These phases vary through all the degrees of acuteness, ranging from the presence of actual distress to speeding up to the resumption of normal employment, and even the permanent prevention of any unemployment at all. The day may come when we shall see the winding off of any wholesale depression and nation-wide joblessness."

New York Letter

by Lucy Jeannie Price

New York. — Realism may be carried too far. I've suspected this for a long time — ever since seeing one or two of this season's plays — and one gets a bit tired of the psychological meaning which leads people to try so many experiments so that they "will know how people would act" under various conditions. Here's one now instance. A Japanese, giving his name as Taitaa Tsjo, explained when he was held on charges of beating Mrs. Amelia Carthener with an umbrella, that he was seeking "local color" for a scenario he was writing. One scene, he said, shows an attack on a pretty girl. And "I wanted to find out how she'd act," Taitaa declared.

—NY—
The man who expects gossip of the day from his barber has a surprise waiting for him in a shop in Fulton street. One of the chairs there is manned by a lay preacher, who keeps a Bible close at hand and accompanies clip-clip of his shears with a forceful sermon, plentifully sprinkled with Biblical quotations.

—NY—
Among the theatrical gossip of the day, heard along Broadway, is; that "Under the Bamboo Tree" is going to be revived soon, with Jimmy Huxsey in the role originally played by Bert Williams; that Eva Le Gallienne will make her appearance on Broadway next season as a full fledged star in a play based upon the life of Jeanne d'Arc; and that David Belasco has just another play ready for Frances Starr, which will be tried out shortly.

—NY—
"Society blackmail" is rife again in New York, according to District Attorney Banton, who says that he has information that several magazines of the gossip kind have recently received money for keeping articles out of print. The difficulty is, as he points out, that the victims won't let him use their names in order to prosecute and so the law is helpless.

—NY—
All the wheat states of the union will be ransacked by Mrs. Marie Whitaker, of 330 Henry street, who has just left New York in a small motor car to make a thorough search for her son, Leroy, who left home four years ago and has not been heard of since. She said that he left for the wheat belt and disappeared. The police have failed to locate him, but Mrs. Whitaker believes if she stops at every farm and ranch in the wheat growing district of the country, she will find him.

—NY—
Even the Quat's Arts balls are censored in these particular and censorious days, and the old-time freedom of costume is to be found no more. The Quat's Arts ball is one of the frolics of the year for the artists, writers, actors, models and anyone else who can find a place to hang on to anyone of the arts, an dthe annual event is always looked forward to with artistic excitement. But this year, a staid policeman, Mrs. Hannah MacQuire, was stationed at the ball to see that artists didn't presume too far upon their temperament and prerogatives. One model, Milti Morton, was tearfully sent from the dancing floor by the adamant upholder of the law, but finally won her consent to appear again if she would drape herself somewhat more completely. So Milti came back with a batik scarf about her and Mrs. MacQuire allowed the dance to continue, ever with a watchful eye at Milti's shoulders, however.

—NY—
You know those little rows of monkeys you have bought as coming straight from the Orient, carrying their little sermon of "See no evil; Hear no evil; Speak no evil?" Well, would it be an awful blow to you to know that every last one of them reaches you through a shop near Columbus Circle right here in New York? It does. Some of them go to Chinatown, some to London, some to every part of the shopping world. But they start on their journey from Columbus Circle. Oh, well, it's a good motto, wherever it comes from.

—NY—
Jazz, the insidious and all-prevailing jazz, was directly responsible for the death of Melville M. Wilson, one of New York's oldest cellists, according to his closest friends. The seventy-two-year old musician was unable to adjust himself to modern conditions, so they say. He couldn't play jazz — and he wouldn't. His cello was almost sacred to him and he would not defile

LOW EGG PRICE USHERS IN PRESERVING SEASON.

Lexington, Ky., — Thousands of dozens of Kentucky eggs will be placed in water glass during the coming few months while eggs are cheap for use next winter when prices for this product soar, according to poultrymen at the College of Agriculture. Use of the water glass method of preserving makes it possible to have winter eggs at about one-half of what fresh ones would cost, the poultrymen say.

Eggs can be kept fresh as long as a year by the following method, according to J. R. Smyth, extension poultryman:

"Only absolutely fresh eggs should be preserved, candling being advisable if there is any doubt as to their freshness. Dirty eggs or eggs that have been washed should not be used. Washed eggs will not keep because the protective covering has been removed, while dirty eggs will become tainted in flavor. Infertile eggs should be used whenever it is possible to obtain them.

"Commercial water glass, which may be bought at any drug store, is used at the rate of one quart to nine quarts of water that has been boiled and then cooled. The mixture is stirred until the ingredients are thoroughly mixed.

"A clean stone jar has been found to be the most suitable container, one-eight-gallon jar being sufficient for 15 dozen eggs. One quart of the water glass and nine o fwater will preserve this quantity. The eggs are placed in the solution so that those at the top are covered by at least two inches of liquid after which the jar should be covered to prevent evaporation. The jar needs to be stored in a cool place where it will be undisturbed.

"The housekeeper who wants to save steps need not go to the jar every time she wishes an egg but may take enough out of the solution to last several days, providing she has a cool place to keep them. Eggs may be added to the solution from time to time without danger of spoiling those already in it."

MORE SHRUBS BEING USED FOR GROUND IMPROVEMENT.

Lexington, Ky., — Interest among Kentucky farmers as well as owners of city property in the beautifying of their home grounds by means of planting shrubs has been increasing steadily during the past few years, according to N. R. Elliott, of the College of Agriculture. Three varieties of shrubs have been found to be especially good for individual plantings while seven others have predominated in hedge and screen plantings.

Dogwood, one of the three varieties for individual specimens, grows 15 to 20 feet high and has white or red flowers that bloom in May. This is a tree that requires plenty o fspace for development.

Smokewood, another shrub that makes good individual specimens, grows about 12 feet high and blooms in July. This tree is distinctive in that the bloom is in flowering clusters. It is popular for planting on the edge of open vistas.

Judas Tree, the third specimen for individual plantings, grows to be 10 or 12 feet high and has a rose-pink blossom that blooms in April and May. This shrub is one that blooms before the leaves appear.

For hedges and screens, Japanese Barberry has proved to be one of the most popular, this shrub growing from three to four feet high. It is a hardy plant with heavy green foliage that produces scarlet berries in the autumn.

Hydrangea grows six to 10 feet high and has a white or rose colored flower that blooms from July to September. It is one of the good flowering shrubs that blooms late in the summer.

Privet grows to be about eight feet high and is considered one of the best shrubs for hedges. The plants should be set from eight to 10 inches apart in a staggering row.

Japan Quince grows to be from six to eight feet high and has a scarlet flower that blooms in May. When set from 15 to 18 inches apart, these plants make a dense bed that requires little pruning.

NATURE TELLS YOU

As Many a Maysville Reader Knows Too Well.

When the kidneys are weak, the urine is nature's index. Infrequent or too frequent passage, Nature tells you about it. Other disorders suggest kidney ills. Doan's Kidney Pills are for disordered kidneys. Ask your neighbor. Maysville people testify to their worth.

Charles Kennan, retired farmer, 81 Wood street, Maysville, says: "I have used Doan's Kidney Pills several different times within the last few years and never had them fail to do me good. My kidneys were in a mighty bad shape the first time I used them. The secretions I passed were bloody and burned terribly. My back kept me in misery during the time the attack lasted and I was feeling generally run down. I went to Wood & Son's Drug Store and got a couple boxes of them. This medicine reached my case at once and cured me up in good shape. I have always relied upon Doan's ever since. I use a few now and then to regulate my kidneys and they never fail me."

Price 60 cents, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills — the same that Mr. Kennan had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.

PASTURES ARE PARCHED ANNUALLY IN KENTUCKY.

Lexington, Ky., — Kentucky has a drouth practically every year, according to livestock men at the College of Agriculture here. In some seasons, the lack of rainfall is felt for a few weeks only while in other years, it continues for months. In practically all cases, the lack or rain during the summer is sufficient to parch pastures in the state, the most serious damage usually coming in August, it is said. Dairymen suffer most heavily from the dry seasons, the parched pastures resulting in decreased milk and butterfat production, the livestock men say.

By means of a number of experiments which have been conducted, the college has found that Sudan grass makes a good crop to furnish green feed for dairy cows during the summer drouths, according to J. J. Hooper, head of the dairy department. Six acres of it will be seeded this spring, he said. From 20 to 30 pounds of seed an acre will be broadcasted in May or early June, the chief requirement being a well prepared seed bed of warm soil. The seed also may be drilled.

On the college farm, Sudan grass seeded in May has yielded as much as five tons of green feed an acre in early August while a second cutting is possible about the middle of September. The grass is cut with a mower and hauled to the cows, each animal receiving about 50 pounds of green grass daily.

Green corn also can be used for cow feed during the drouth seasons but a heavier yield of green feed will be secured at less cost and labor from the use of Sudan grass, the dairymen say.

Gude's Pepto-Mangan Is The Best Tonic for Nervous Tired-Out Wives.

Is your wife "all tired out" and cross and irritable much of the time? Do the children "bother her to death" every day, and do the ordinary household tasks that she formerly performed with ease seem now to overtax her? In other words, do you often come home to a house of trouble instead of a house of joy and happiness?

If your answer is "yes" to these pointed questions, don't blame your wife until she had taken Gude's Pepto-Mangan with her meals for a few weeks. She is simply run-down and nervous and needs the kind of iron that she will get in Gude's Pepto-Mangan to give her more vitality and strength. For thirty years doctors have recommended Gude's Pepto-Mangan as a first-class building-up tonic. Sold by your druggist in both liquid and tablet form.—Advertisement.

Flemingsburg, Ky., April 19 — A meeting of interest to the fruit growers in this section of the state, conducted under the auspices of the Kentucky state horticultural society, was held at the Bald Hill Orchard of V. C. Razor, this county, about six miles from this city. The orchard consists of more than 50 acres of apple trees, all of which were in full bloom at the time of the meeting. Ben Miles, secretary of the society, was the principal speaker. Others who spoke were Professor Olney of the horticultural department of the University of Kentucky, Dr. Howard Van Antwerp of Farmers, Ky., J. C. Rains, of Maysville, and H. F. McKinney, agricultural agent of Fleming county.

KEEN INTEREST IS SHOWN IN RETURN OF LOU TELLEGEN

Famous Actor Who Made His First Big Hit With Sarah Bernhardt to Appear in Person Here in His Own Production.

An attraction that will doubtless delight local theatergoers to the point of ecstasy, and scheduled to appear at the Washington on next Monday evening for an engagement of one night only is, the famous international romantic star, Lou Tellegen, who will present himself (in person) and his own company in an elaborate revival of the play in which he made his greatest American success, "Blind Youth," a comedy drama in three acts. By Mr. Tellegen in collaboration with Willard Mack, and which enjoyed long runs in New York, Boston, Chicago and Philadelphia.

Mr. Tellegen has made so many distinct hits since his first appearance in this country as leading man with Mme. Sarah Bernhardt, that his sterling worth as an artist is well known to every patron of the theater on both sides of the Atlantic; it is, in fact, conceded by the greatest writers and critics, that he is without a peer, when it comes to the real perfection of mastery of his art.

In "Blind Youth" he has given the stage a character and play that is at once natural and life-like; the incident upon which the play is based, is a fact, it having occurred to a fellow student while the star was a student under the great Rodin of Paris. The story tells of the young man's inability to distinguish between false and genuine love, which being guided by impulse rather than reason, leads him into all sorts of trouble; of course there is ample opportunity for much laughter as well as seriousness, for it would not be life-like, if both light and shadow were not blended.

NEVER USE DRUGS

Victims Liable to Suffer Heart Depression or Shattered Nervous System.

The use of medicinal preparations containing powerful minerals, salts, or coal tar by-products should be avoided by people who need health help. Powerful drugs are liable to depress the heart, shatter the nerves or cause intestinal irritation, stomach ulcers or other complications.

Physicians generally advise that some pure vegetable laxative tonic be used to freshen the blood and relieve constipation, sour gassy stomach, kidney, liver and bowel troubles.

Bulgarian Blood Tea being purely vegetable is a splendid medicinal tonic to use to relieve and assist nature to eliminate the poisonous wastes. Millions are now using Bulgarian Blood Tea as their favorite family medicine. Physicians and druggists knowing that Bulgarian Blood Tea is purely vegetable do not hesitate to recommend it.
